He is Risen! The thought of this captivates my heart and mind. He lived the perfect life. He made the supreme sacrifice anyone can make. He proved that He was who He said He was by His last act of power. Jesus is absolutely amazing! How can anyone ever take His name in vain? How can anyone ignore His love? Why are we not totally devoted to His cause? There are lots of questions. It is so easy, I know, to get involved in this life and this project and that child and that sport and this cause. We are people of passion. Our passion seems to be easily directed at about everything else besides building the Kingdom of God and serving our Lord. I know this sounds like a preacher working on a flock. I hope you also hear a believer yearning to see that each of us as followers of Jesus live out our faith in an authentic way. Speaking of questions, can I take the liberty to bother you with a couple more that I hope you might answer when you are alone, and perhaps God has some of your attention? What do you consider the most important activity in your life? Does the thought of being alone with God: 1. Bore you? 2. Excite you? 3. You don't have those kinds of thoughts? When you come to the end of your life how do you wish to be remembered? These questions won't determine your spirituality as much as they will let us know what we are passionate about. If your answers all reflect your relationship with your family then your passion is for them. If your answers reflect your friends or relationships then that is where your passion is. If your answers are all about you then, well you know. Let me just remind each of us that there is one commandment that is very close to the heart of God. ³⁷Jesus replied: " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' ³⁸This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' (Matthew 22) God would have us be passionate for sure. And we certainly can be passionate about more than one thing or person or idea. This being true we are called as believers to love God beyond anything or anyone else. If this is true it will show in our lives. If it doesn't show it probably doesn't exist. But it can! Seek the Lord while He may be found. He that seeks finds and the one who knocks it will be opened up to him.

Have a great April. Don't be fooled.
