

Keith's Quill

Fall begins this month. Ever thought about that word fall? I looked it up. In regards to the other way it is used besides the obvious of losing one's balance and falling down there is the season that we call fall. The word fall is actually from the Middle English "fallen" and that from the Old English "feallan". The Old English means fail, decay or die. So if you fail to walk to the refrigerator you may have fallen.

On the other hand fall may be a time of the season when things die and decay. It being the opposite of spring when things come alive and grow.

You can use fall to show that someone or something passes into another state. For example if someone falls in love they are in love.

Here is an online explanation of the word. "In the early 1600s as more people started moving into cities, the word harvest fell out of use. Instead, city dwellers began to use the phrase "fall of the leaf" to refer to the third season of the year when trees lose their leaves".

So all of that makes one a bit leery of the season. Who after all likes to fall? And the idea of things dying and decaying is a downer. But you know the Bible speaks to us of seasons, right?

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: ²A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;" (Ecclesiastes 3:1-2)

It might be understood that God has a purpose for every season. Fall has its purpose and even its delights. Some things die but some things come to life. No more picking pickles in the garden but footballs begin to fly. No more green lawns but no more lawns to mow. No more family vacations for a while but lots of time to plan for the next one. Less excuses to miss church and more chances to come and worship Jesus.

Find the good, even in the "fall". It is a trick to a life filled with joy. PK

Student Assistance Program

Our university students have begun a new school year! Please pray for them as they transition to new classes, apartments, roommates, and work schedules. They have been actively involved in Moab Community Church and now, as they pursue their educations, we pray for them to grow spiritually, mentally, socially and physically according to God's principles.

In addition to our prayers, they receive financial scholarships. You can support this ministry by designating your cash or check contribution to the SAP fund and placing it in the offering plate. Online giving is an option at moabcommunitychurch.com.
