

AUGUST 2017

KEITH'S QUILL

Well, it is August. The weather is still hot. But there is a change in the air. Do you sense it? In two weeks school will be starting. Sport teams are practicing. Soon footballs will be flying, cheerleaders will be bouncing, and parents will be anxious for the outcomes.

I always thought of summer as three months long. Some how it has been reduced to two. We continue to attempt to push more and more things into our lives. Life gets louder but not wider. We think with all the activity, that we must be accomplishing Something. But is life really fuller... and are we happy with all the fuss?

Jesus often called His disciples to rest. He would habitually seek silence and solitude for Himself. There is something spiritually energizing that happens when we draw away from the hustle, and calm our spirits before the Lord.

As we begin to consider a new school year and another busy round of activities that seek to call us away from our quiet times with God, we need to recommit to keeping those holy appointments with God. Busy after all is not bad. But busy without vitality is going to wear us out. You can't run on empty very long. We do try sometimes. In the teaching of Jesus regarding the vine and the branches Jesus reminds us of this important truth.

In John 15, Jesus says; 4Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.5I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

Our times with the Lord help us to keep the life giving nourishment flowing into our lives, and thus when the activity starts there is fuel in the tank that results in fruit in the basket. Fruitful people, it seems to me, are generally happy people who understand that their lives have great meaning, even though they may not be doing great things in their own eyes. So here is the lesson Jesus is trying to teach me today. Slow down and wait for Me! God is always on time. So let's take whatever time we need to be alone with God and even though time speeds up we will keep up. PK
